Nearly 600 Superforts Take Part In Biggest Air Raid
On Japan

MITCHELL BOMBERS ALSO MAKE RAIDS

By PAT ROBINSON
U. S. Staff Correspondent

GUAM, July 2.—Kure's navy yard and waterfront were aflame tonight (Japan time) after up to 600 Superforts, the largest armada ever over Japan, set the torch to that enemy metropolis and three other industrial-communications centers of the Jap homeland.

Japanese broadcasts admitted that the record-breaking fire-raid inflicted extensive damage to the naval base as American headquarters spokesmen declared that "excellent results" were achieved in the four-pronged assault.

Waterfront Ablaze

As returning airmen told of seeing the entire waterfront at Kure and two harbors furiously the Tokyo radio said that considerable damage "in a wide area" resulted when Kure was bombed for about two and one-half hours early this morning. "Negligible" damages resulted among the city's naval facilities, according to the enemy broadcast which asserted, however, that the fires were extinguished five hours later.

Opposition Meagre

Anti-aircraft opposition was described everywhere as meagre and inaccurate, and there was virtually no fighter interception.

Huge German Accounts In Switzerland Secret

By ARTHUR E. HERMANN

WASHINGTON, July 2.—A Senate investigating committee was told today that the Swiss government is both to uncover hundreds of millions of dollars in German assets deposited in secret accounts in that nation's banks.

At the same time, it was revealed that Germany made extensive use of six neutral nations—Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey and Argentina—in setting up dummy corporations to conceal German ownership in world-wide industrial enterprises.

Will Demand Spain Give Up Tangier Control

WASHINGTON, July 2.—(INS)—The United States joined with Britain and France today in a move to force Generalissimo Francisco Franco to give up his single handed control of the strategically placed international zone of Tangier at the Mediterranean's western gateway.

The state department announced that three of its representatives will meet immediately in Paris with representatives of the British and French to discuss the action to be taken. Its delegates at the "informal" conversations will be Henry S. Villard, chief of the department's African division, J. Rives Childs, recently charge d'affaires at Tangier, and Ernest J. Dempsey of the legation there.

In view of the fact that the European war has been terminated there is no longer any need for justification for the continued operation of the zone, the announcement said, "according to the invitation of the British and French governments, an informal meeting has been arranged between American representatives and representatives of those two governments for the purpose of discussing action to be taken in connection with the future disposition of the zone."

President Truman Asks Senate For Action On Charter

Goes Before Senate In Person To Urge Ratification Of World Charter

SAYS U. S. SHOULD LEAD RATIFICATION

By ROBERT G. NIXON
U. S. Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 2.—President Truman went before the senate in person today to urge "prompt ratification" of the United Nations charter to bring the United States into full membership of the world peace organization.

The chief executive told the senate that the charter "points down the only road to enduring peace. He said there is no choice except whether this charter is ratified, despite some shortcomings, or whether there is no peace organization at all.

Choice Of Senate Clear

The choice before the senate is now clear, the president said in a brief message of five minutes during the session. The choice is not between this charter and something else. It is between this charter and no charter at all.

"Improvements will come in the future as the United Nations gain experience with the machinery and methods which they have set up. For this is not a static treaty. It can be improved, and as the years go by, it will be just as our own constitution has been improved."

"I urge ratification, I urge prompt ratification." The president told the senate that the objectives of the charter, which (Continued on Page Two)

Want Freedom

"They want business to be freed from government regulation, labor from government restriction, the farmer from government supervision, and the average citizen from restrictions which are not compatible with freedom and liberty."

"Though they have all been willing to temporarily submit to what ever regulations were necessary to win the war, they are concerned over the fact that many Federal (Continued on Page Two)

New Buzz Bombs To Drop On Japan

Attack May Be Unleashed On Jap Enemy In Near Future Is Report

By JOSEPH BORS
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Japanese civilians, who have been learning the meaning of total war through Superfortresses attacking today, faced the prospect of ducking America's improved version of the X-propelled "buzz" bomb, which may be unleashed in the near future.

Just when, how and from where these automatic rocket bombs will be launched against the Jap homeland is a military secret, but there is every indication that the missiles may be used within the next few months.

New Devastation Coming
Recently the army air technical service command has been predicting new devastation for Japan by talking about the displaying the American buzz bomb in an effort to boost war bond sales.

For instance, the service command in the past few days has been sponsoring a buzz bomb exhibit in the nation's Capitol, and one department store carried these ads in local papers which read:

"You read how much damage buzz bombs did to Europe. Now see America's own robot bomb which is part of our plans for beating Japan. It was patterned after the German V-1 bomb. It weighs 2,028 pounds—its war head carries 1,000 pounds of death and destruction over a range of 150 miles. Twenty-seven feet long, it is automatically piloted at speeds over 400 miles per hour. It was developed at Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, under the supervision of the equipment laboratory of the army air forces."

Launched From Planes?
Unless America has even newer secret models with greater range, the United States at present has no base near enough from Japan to launch the buzz bombs from stationary platforms as the Germans did in Europe. Okinawa is nearly 400 miles south of the Jap homeland.

However, that does not mean the robot bombs may not be launched against the enemy in the near future, since both the Germans and Japs have demonstrated they can be attached to the underside of a large plane, flown within range and then released to go under their own power.

Another possibility is that eventually American forces will move up Ryukyu chain to take additional bases which might be used for launching buzz bombs.

Wampum 'Newsette' Has First Birthday

Wampum's small newspaper, "The Newsette", which is published every month for the town's servicemen, celebrated its first birthday with the June issue.

Edited by Rev. and Mrs. T. B. Yahn and published by the N.Y.F. of the Wampum Methodist church, the paper calls itself the "biggest little paper in Lawrence county." Its aim is to give local gossip and news to men of the district who are now in service, as well as to keep the servicemen informed about each other.

About 32,700 Now On Strike In Akron

Firestone Employees Join Strike; Goodyear Workers Still Out; Picket Lines Set

AKRON, O., July 2.—(INS.) Approximately 4,000 office workers of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber company were prevented from reporting to their jobs today by striking CIO-United Rubber Workers.

The picketing of the Goodyear office building was a new phase in the growing labor strife in the Akron rubber industry, with 32,700 persons now on strike at Goodyear and at the nine plants of the Firestone Tire & Rubber company.

Approximately 16,000 Firestone workers went on strike yesterday after rejecting at a mass meeting a negotiating committee plea that it be granted 16 more days in which to settle disputes with the management. The strike was authorized two weeks ago by a 6 to 1 vote taken under the CIO-United Rubber Workers. Picketing in front of the Firestone plants, however, made no attempt to stop office workers from coming to their jobs.

A spoke man for Goodyear said that their picket lines were directed about the entrances to the office buildings. "We don't want to picket the workers," he said, "we only picket the entrances. Only the executives it was said, were allowed through the line."

Summer Recess Plans Of House May Be Affected

"Battle Of F.E.P.C." Threatens To Upset Program; Some War Agencies Are Stymied

WASHINGTON, July 2.—INS.—The "Battle of the FEPC" threatens today to upset plans for a summer recess as the House grinds for a last-ditch fight over the wartime agency.

Both sides in the struggle over funds for the Fair Employment Practices committee, established by former President Roosevelt in 1940 to combat racial and religious discrimination in war jobs, are determined to see the matter through to the end.

The controversy seems likely to upset the legislative program for what was to have been the final week before House adjournment Saturday until the fall. The Senate was scheduled to remain in session for another month or six weeks.

With the opening of a new government fiscal year, the FEPC is without funds. Although the Senate voted $250,000 Saturday for the agency, House action has been blocked.

Stymied along with the FEPC are funds for some 16 other war agencies, all included in the 800 million dollar war agencies appropriation bill, the only one of the major appropriation bills which failed to clear the hurdle Saturday before the opening of the new fiscal year.

OFFICIAL COUNT

Breaking all records in many years, the official recount board was expected to complete its work today and file the official returns of the primary of June 19.

The board, composed of Chester A. Cleveland, Mrs. Gail Morrison, Mrs. Arthur Glickert and Miss Dolie Davis was sworn in at noon Friday, June 22, and started work Friday afternoon. Saturday was a half day and then followed the past week. It was one of the fastest pieces of work ever turned in by an official recount board.

The fact that the vote was tight has very little to do with the speed of the job. It takes as long to count down and tabulate 22 votes as it does 92. In addition, a rash of write-ins seized the voters and the board had to compile all these.

The following vote is that of the republican party. The Democratic vote will appear Tuesday.

For Superior Court: John C. Arnold, 7,326; W. Heber Dittmer, 6,408.

For Judge of the Court of Last Resort: W. Walter Blahm, 10,798; For Sheriff: Earl J. J. 734; Frank S. Johnston, 1,809; Frank L. Coen, 8,711; Edward E. Tucker, 733.

For district attorney: Leon K. Leland, 10,279. For register and recorder: Orville Patton, 10,410. For jury commissioner: George J. Frost, 9,405. For county surgeon: W. Leslie Wilson, 9,722.

For city council: Charles E. McGrath, 2,317; Lt. Charles L. Reese, 999; James Gibson, 3,639; John J. McCoy, 1,248; J. Edgar Bryan, 1,444; Joseph D. Alexander, 3,189.

NEW CASTLE LET'S LOOK AT OUR RECORD

Lawrence County has exceeded its quota on every War Bond Drive to date. That's a record of which we are all proud; it's a record that few counties in Pennsylvania can match—AND IT'S A RECORD THAT MUST NOT BE BROKEN!

THE JOB WE MUST DO

Our E Bond Quota is $2,640,000, the sales to date are $2,381,913. That leaves $258,087 yet to be raised if we are to meet this quota in the "People's Bond".

It's true that we are ahead of MOST counties in Western Pennsylvania, only Beaver and Mercer are above us now. BUT WE STILL NEED $258,087 IN E BOND SALES TO REACH 100 PER CENT, AND WE CAN AND MUST MAKE THAT GOAL!

HOW WE CAN DO IT

A dollar bill, or a ten dollar bill, or a hundred dollar bill is just a piece of paper—it is worth one dollar, ten dollars or a hundred dollars only because our Government says so. And a War Bond is just a piece of paper too. It's worth $18.75, $37.50, $75.00 only because that same government says so. BUT, THE WAR BOND IS WORTH MORE AS TIME GOES ON (in ten years it's worth one-third more) and it is registered, so that if it is stolen or lost, your money can be recovered.

Now, we can do this job, if everyone realizes that "buying" War Bonds is merely converting money into a gilt-edged investment.

We can do it if everyone with some cash or savings will convert at least a portion of it into E Bonds.

We can do it if everyone "buys" all the War Bonds he or she can buy. THEN THE JOB IS A CINCH.

Lt. Robert Dicks, New Wilmington, Given Silver Star

(Special To The News)

A NINTH ARMY FIGHTER-BOMBER BASE, Germany—The Silver Star for gallantry in action has been awarded to First Lieut. Robert D. Dicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Dicks, 261 Maple street, New Wilmington.

Lt. Dicks had the award bestowed on him for the part he played in an aerial encounter with the Luftwaffe when he saved one of his buddies from being shot down and then he alone fought eight of the enemy fighter planes, destroying two of them. He flew his damaged aircraft back to friendly territory and was forced to make an emergency crash landing.

The aerial encounter took place over Mainz, Germany, last February when three times their number attacked 12 P-47 Thunderbolt fighter-bomber planes as they were strafing. In his lone struggle against the four Messerschmitt 109s and the four Focke Wulf 190s Lt. Dicks displayed masterful skill and exemplary ability, caused one enemy pilot to lose control of his plane and crash into the ground. He shot another enemy plane down flying at an altitude of 100 feet.

Finishing himself alone with his Thunderbolt, Lt. Dicks flew back to friendly territory, where he made an emergency crash landing in friendly territory.

A Ninth Air Force fighter-bomber pilot, Lt. Dicks flew with the 368th Fighter Group. He had flown 87 combat missions when the Germans surrendered. Lt. Dicks participated mostly in dive-bombing and strafing of German military trains and aided in the disruption of enemy movement of supplies, weapons, forces and troops.

TANGIER

Tangier, because of its excellent harbor advantages and strategic location on the coast of Morocco, has been an important port since the days of the Roman empire. It was the Empire of Africa, and became a free port when it was captured from the Moors by the Spaniards in 1492. Tangier was captured by Portugal in 1669 and, in 1684, by the British. It was then abandoned to the Moors.

France assumed a protectorate over Morocco in 1912, and Tangier, which had been a free port since 1684, was placed under the protection of the port. The port was then protected and Great Britain, France and Spain were about to set up a special regime there when the first world war broke out. Spain then backed out, and the port was then under the protection of the port.

In 1924 the three European powers agreed to place Tangier under the protection of the port. In 1928 Italy joined in the agreement. In 1930 the port was placed under the protection of the port.

In 1940 while the other European nations were engaged in a World War, the Generalissimo, Francisco Franco, then ruler of Spain, joined the port.

New York Papers Still Tied UpStrike Of Deliverymen Enters Second Day In New York, 11 Papers Paralyzed

NEW YORK, July 2.—(INS)—News-hungry New Yorkers again had to visit publishing offices today to get their favorite newspapers as a strike of deliverymen entered into its second day.

Meanwhile publishers of 11 metropolitan papers whose deliveries are paralyzed by the walkout awaited results of a plea for WLB action on the ground that the strike which began Saturday several hours before the expiration of the current contract violated repeated WLB directives.

The public swamped newspaper offices yesterday. The Times had sold nearly 30,000 copies over the counter in Manhattan out of a press of 276,000. The remainder was dispatched by mail and trucked out of the city.

The Journal-American sold all its press run of "less than 25,000" over the counter. Other newspapers did not divulge their total sales.

Part Of Strikers Return To Work

About one-third of the 50 striking automatic machine tool operators and setters of the United Engineering & Foundry company have returned to their jobs, it was said today. Production of 155 mm shells has been increased and is back to about 90 per cent of what it was when the men struck.

The men went on strike as a protest against the discharge of a foreman who became disgruntled when some adjustment was made in his duties. No report of the difficulty has been made to the office of the International Association of Machinists, the business representative, James J. Dennis, said.

A regular business meeting of the union was held Sunday but nothing was done concerning the strike due to the fact that it is unauthorized, Mr. Dennis said.

The oldest known fresco that deserves to be called a painting, belongs to Roman times and represents a Roman marriage ceremony. It is now in the Vatican.

One Death And Heavy Loss In Miami Blaze

MIAMI, Fla., July 2.—(INS)—One person was dead and twelve were suffering from injuries today as the result of a fire which caused heavy damage to the Franklin Oil Company's terminal here.

The single fatality was identified as Jimmy Nelson, 14, who died at a Miami hospital from head wounds when he was struck by a flying fragment.

The injured were treated for cuts and burns at hospital and emergency first aid stations.

Flames erupted the explosion of 149 separate oil tanks and drums. The conflagration, which sent smoke billowing 14,000 feet into the air, raged for seven hours before city and volunteer fire fighters were able to put it out.

Victim I. Debo, a Franklin employee, said that the fire started when heat from coils used in re-cumulating used oil, ignited vapors from the still while he was draining from a tank.

The fire also caused heavy damage to the Sun Gas Co. oil storage plant and the Amoco oil storage tanks.

Sir Charles Wheatstone of England is credited with inventing the harmonica in 1829.

Marine Fliers Had Major Role On Okinawa

GUAM, July 2.—(INS)—Cursors and night-bombing Hellcats and Avengers torpedo-bombers of Marine Air Group 23 were revealed today to have played a major role in capturing Okinawa.

Flying 25,000 combat hours on 10,000 sorties, the Marines under Col. William Dickey, of 409th Naval Wing, DuBois, Pa., shot down 234 Japanese planes from April 10 until the island was secured. This constitutes the record for Marine Gen. Louis Woods' Tenth Army tactical air force.

The record is one of the most sensational in the history of military aviation.

Woods calls it one of "extraordinary heroism and inspiring determination."

Supporting the Okinawa ground forces, Corsairs and Hellcats ranged from Kyushu to Dyako and 119 multi-plane bombing and rocket-firing attacks were flown. In these strikes, two planes were lost in actual combat, though 44 were lost to enemy action and rugged flying conditions cost a dozen more.

Losses were described as "relatively low" considering that during the first month of this unit's operation they flew 100 missions and 400 sorties, and the field constantly under repair. The marine airman were forced to take off from a narrow runway which was completely surrounded by construction work.

Philip R. Phelps Promoted To Major

Recently awarded the Purple Heart for injuries received in combat, and the bronze star medal for heroism in action, Philip R. Phelps has been promoted to the rank of major, according to information sent to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Phelps of Templeton, N.Y.

The 25-year-old major left New Castle with Troop F in February, 1941, and has been serving overseas with the field artillery since March, 1944. He received his commission as captain in New Guinea and is now on northern Luzon. According to Major Phelps, his regiment is doing well.

While doing his duty in the Southern Philippines, a man had the seat of his trousers torn away by the blast of a V-bomb.

A silver pendant bearing the image of William King of Meville from 825 to 938 was sold for $900 at a recent London auction.
